OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Thursday - 23 April 1964

✓ 1. (Unclassified - GLC) I hand carried to Miss Turner, in the office of Representative Ray J. Madden, a letter from [REDACTED] STAT responding to correspondence from Madden to the Director with respect to a constituent request. Miss Turner said this letter was most satisfactory and indicated her appreciation for same.

I took this opportunity to ask Miss Turner to convey to the Congressman an invitation to visit the Agency if he had an interest in doing so and could find time in his schedule. (It should be noted that Madden is the third ranking Democrat of the House Rules Committee which in the last two Congresses has in effect tabled any action on legislative proposals to establish a Joint Committee on Intelligence.) Miss Turner said she would be happy to convey the invitation.

2. (Unclassified - GLC) Ben Mandel, Senate Internal Security Subcommittee staff, called regarding the current issue of ESQUIRE which contains photographs of letters which Lee Oswald sent to his mother when he was in the Soviet Union. At the bottom of these letters are - comm. no. - and Mr. Mandel is anxious to know whether from our experience we know "exactly" what these words mean. I told him I would look into this and be in touch. STAT

✓ 3. (Unclassified - GLC) Don Mitchell, in the office of Representative Gillis W. Long, called to ask if we had any information concerning a

4. (Internal Use Only - JGO) Met with Mrs. Jean Allen and Mr. Courtney Pace who advised that due to Senator Eastland's absence from the city until Tuesday it will not be possible for the Senator to visit the building on either Monday or Tuesday evening as had been suggested. Further, it will not be possible to establish a tentative date for Senator Eastland's visit until after his return on Tuesday.

5. (Internal Use Only - JGO) Advised Mr. Jay Sourwine that the newspaper carrying the Per Lindgren article has not yet arrived in this country, but upon arrival will be translated and a copy furnished to him.

6. (Internal Use Only - JGO) I advised Mrs. Bette B. Welch, Executive Secretary to Representative Charles A. Mosher (R., Ohio), that I would furnish her with a name and telephone extention at our
